Abstract

A concise and factual abstract is required (maximum length of (200 to 300 words). The abstract should state briefly the purpose of the research.

Keywords

Right after the abstract, list up to 3 to 6 important words or phrases that describe your paper..

Subdivision of the article

Now divide your article into clearly defined and numbered sections. Subsections should be numbered 1, 2. (then 1.1, 1.1.1, etc.). The abstract is not included in section numbering.

Table and Figures

Place all tables and figures at the suitable place of your article.

Remember, the journal will publish them in black and white only.

References

Author(s) should follow the latest edition of APA style in referencing. You can learn more at www.apastyle.org

Citations in the text

- Every source you mention in the text must be listed in the reference list, and vice versa.
- Don't include citations in the abstract.
- Personal conversations or unpublished work can be mentioned in the text but not in the reference list.
- If something is listed as "in press", it means it has already been accepted for publication.

Reference List

References should be arranged first alphabetically and then further sorted chronologically if necessary. More than one reference from the same author(s) in the same year must be identified by the letters "a", "b", "c", etc., placed after the year of publication.
